*Members' Monthly Dinner Meeting on October 11, 2013Featured Speaker: Katya Held

Noted artist Katya Held will speak at the Sketch Club's October 11th Dinner Meeting. Her presentation, which is open to the public, will be at 6:15 PM.

Katya is a painterly realist, who works on a wide variety of subjects: portraits and figures, city scenes and rural landscapes of foreign lands, still life and floral compositions. The last decade Katya had over 50 group and solo shows at notable galleries and museums, such as Newman Galleries in Philadelphia, Artworks at the Philadelphia Museum of Art, Freeman's Auction House, The National Art Club in New York, Stieglitz Museum and The League of Artists of Russia in Saint Petersburg, and many others.

Katya's paintings are displayed in numerous private collections and corporate headquarters throughout the world. Big corporations, such as Sunoco and ARCWheeler Group, commissioned many of Katya's paintings for their art collections. She received a Master of Fine Arts Degree from Stieglitz St. Petersburg State Academy of Art and Industry in St. Petersburg, Russia in 1995. She continued her education at Studio Incamminati in Philadelphia, PA, the realist painting atelier, founded by Nelson Shanks. After completing a 4 year professional program in 2011, she was granted Studio Incamminati Fellowship and became an art instructor. Today Katya Held maintains her studios in both, Philadelphia and St. Petersburg and teaches painting and drawing classes in various art schools.
