The Philadelphia Sketch Club’s 155th Anniversary Gala

Successful 155th Anniversary Gala Draws Art Notables to Sketch Club

By all accounts the Philadelphia Sketch Club’s 155th Anniversary Gala was a success and provided a joyful time for all attendees. The highlight of the Gala was the presentation of Sketch Club Medals to three prominent artists (Diane Burko, Vincent Desiderio and Garth Herrick) and to Barbara and Richard Rosenfeld who ran the Rosenfeld Gallery in Philadelphia for nearly forty years. In addition to the honorees, other notables from the art scene at the event included David R. Brigham, CEO of PAFA; Donald R. & Linda Aversa-Caldwell (Donald is Chair Emeritus of PAFA’s Board of Trustees); William R. Valerio, Director & CEO, Woodmere Art Museum; Kathleen A. Foster, Senior Curator of American Art at PMA; David Weiss, Vice President at Freemans and a specialist on the Antiques Roadshow; Dianne Semingson, Chair of the Avenue of the Arts, Inc; Derek Gillman, former CEO of both PAFA and the Barnes Foundation and currently Distinguished Visiting Professor of Visual Studies at Drexel University; and a number of eminent artists to include Jan Baltzell, Bill Scott, Dick Ranck, Liz Osborne, James Toogood, John Thornton, Michael Gallagher, Alexandra Tyng, Elaine Lisle, Joe Winter, Amanda Stevenson Lupke, Ed Bronstein, and many more. The evening began with hors d’oeuvres and drinks starting at 7 pm. The medal presentations were made an hour later. Then David Weiss from Freemans led the live auction of nine donated paintings including works from the honorees. During this time, a silent auction of various items was held on the first floor. After the auction a buffet dinner was served in both the gallery and the Rathskeller. A party favor was presented to all attendees which was a wine glass with both the Sketch Club logo and corporate seal. John Thornton, a PAFA trained fine artist, recorded many of the evenings activities on a video which he artfully crafted into a masterpiece. You can view the Gala video by clicking on the below link or pasting it into your browser address line. https://youtu.be/BNBmcfvMHz4

Contribute to the Sketch Club

Please consider additional giving tax deductible financial support to the Sketch Club beyond your basic membership dues. Competition for funding for an arts organizations like the Sketch Club is increasingly competitive and total funding for the arts is shrinking. Your additional support will keep the PSC an active support for visual artists in the Metropolitan Philadelphia area.

The Philadelphia Sketch Club is an IRS designated 501(c) (3) non-profit organization which allows your donations to be tax deductible.

Funds from our current Annual Fund Drive will be used to correct the water leakage problem on the rear porch steps and to reframe the large North window.

You can mail your checks to the Sketch Club or visit the Contribute page of our Website to give online.
Membership

Become a Member of the Philadelphia Sketch Club!

If you’re reading this edition of the Portfolio and you’re not a member of the PSC, you should consider joining the more than 200 other Philadelphia area artists who have. The PSC is one of the most active visual art venues serving center city Philadelphia. The PSC is a hands-on organization that offers its members the opportunity to participate in all aspects of creating and presenting work to the public. It presents over 20 scheduled group and solo exhibitions annually and offers a wide range of daily workshops. Get info and an application here.

If you are a member of the PSC, please feel free to share the Portfolio with your artist friends and encourage them to become members.

Deceased

Donald H. Fey - We are sorry to report the death of Don Fey on October 18th. Don was a watercolor painter and was active at the Sketch Club from 1967 to the mid-1990s. Don was also a professional writer for more than thirty years, primarily in fundraising and development for schools, hospitals and public service agencies. As a volunteer he helped launch the Sketch Club’s grant writing efforts which led to significant building improvements in the 1990s. Don was also the father of the noted actress, writer and producer Tina Fey. A memorial salute to Don will appear in the next issue of the Portfolio.

New Gallery Director: Michelle Lockamy

We would like to Welcome Michelle Lockamy as the new Gallery Director at the Philadelphia Sketch Club. Michelle joins us after graduating in 2015 with a BFA in Illustration from Moore College. While at Moore Michelle was a summer intern for the PSC. She also won several awards for her student work, including receiving national recognition. Michelle is succeeding Marilyn Fohrenbach, who has taken on a new position with Mural Arts. We wish Marilyn well on her new endeavor, and welcome Michelle to the PSC. -Rich Harrington, PSC President

About Armor Keller

ArmorKeller@msn.com;

See Armor’s Web site: http://armorkeller.com/

Award winning artist, Armor Keller, was born in Montgomery, Alabama. After having lived in different parts of the United States and overseas, her home is now Doylestown, Pennsylvania.

Her artwork has been presented in many solo exhibitions, including; Huntsville Museum of Art, Kentuck Museum, Wiregrass Museum, Mercedes-Benz Museum, all in Alabama. She has also had solo exhibitions at the following: Meridian Museum of Art, Mississippi, Monroe Museum of Art, Louisiana. Armor’s work has also been included in many group exhibitions. She has had several commissions including designing and gold leafing six wooden doors for Temple Beth El of Birmingham, AL, and 33 paintings for Broadway Crowne Plaza Hotel of New York.

One of Armor’s more ambitious projects has been the Magic City Golden Transit, a car that she gold leafed and jeweled inside and out. It has been featured in a film, books, a calendar, several magazines including Smithsonian Magazine, Car and Driver, Spiegel of Germany, the Japan Esquire and newspapers, including the New York Times. Her art car is now permanently located at The Art Car World Museum, in Arizona.

In 1993, Armor began making one of a kind artist's books. Her books have been exhibited, not only in the USA, but Canada, Mexico, and Germany. See complete bio

Critique Night: Every third Wednesday Night
This month: November 18th at 7:00 PM

Critique Night is held in the Library of the Sketch Club every third Wednesday beginning at 7 PM. Bring work you've finished, work in progress, or just sketches for work you're planning! Photos, digital work, drawings, all mediums are welcome; we can project digital images on a screen for review, so you have the option to show work that may be too big or too heavy to transport to the Club. There is no one individual directing the critique, just your fellow artists and peers.

Susan Barnes had three paintings juried into the Annual Juried show at Center for the Arts of Southern NJ. "Lost in Thought" received Judges Choice award. She also received Honorable Mention for her still life, "Seckels", in the Annual Juried Show at the Medford Art Center which runs until November 22.

Two of her paintings were juried into the Willingboro Art Alliance 20th Annual Open Juried Exhibition. She also has three paintings in "Art at the Arboretum" juried show at Medford Leas Gallery.

In addition U.S. Congressman Tom MacArthur, 3rd District NJ, recently purchased eleven of Susan's paintings.

Bill Kosman is joining three other artists and historian Lynn Miller in a celebration of French Nation Day presented by Global Philadelphia on Tuesday (Oct. 27th) at the Sofitel Hotel (120 South 17th St., Philadelphia 19103). The event lasts from 2 pm to 7 pm.

I’d be honored if you could come and view the works by the four of us and hear what we have to say. In a short presentation, I’ll be talking about my landscapes in Normandy and the welcome I’ve enjoyed from the people in my little corner of Normandy.

If you can attend, you can get more information on Global Philadelphia’s website; a links is below. Also, if you do attend, please say hello to me; I’d love to talk with you. [http://www.globalphiladelphia.org/postcard for the event](http://www.globalphiladelphia.org/postcard for the event). Also, as incentive, above is one of the paintings I’ll discuss.

Thanks for your time, and – if possible – I’d love to see you.
