Sketch Club Activities

ATTENTION ALL MEMBERS! HELP WANTED FOR EXHIBITIONS!!

Gallery Sitting - for 4 hours on a Saturday or Sunday. Usually meet visitors to the exhibitions, Work on your own art in the large gallery space.

Hanging an exhibition - Usually about four people are needed to hang each exhibition.

Delivery and Pickup - Usually only one person is needed for each job.

Currently about 10 members are doing the exhibition work for the club. We have 200 active members. There are simply not enough volunteers to keep the gallery open on weekends which means visitors will not be able to view the exhibits on a Saturday or Sunday. THIS IS CRITICAL! Please think about your commitment to the club. A commitment of 8 hours a year would help to keep the gallery open.

This is one of the best ways to support the PSC. Please consider helping keep the first art club in America alive!!

Photos, digital work, drawings, all mediums are welcome; we can project digital images on a screen for review, so you have the option to show work that may be too big or too heavy to transport to the Club. ## Art Natters: Members News

New Hope Arts is pleased to present our 2018 Legacy Artist, PSC member, Robert Beck, with the opening of the exhibition Robert Beck: Archetype, showcasing 44 paintings from his most recent work.

For more than 25 years Robert Beck has been the artist among us, painting unsentimental and vivid images of remarkable latitude, and evolving as a painter whose vision delights. His body of work focuses on our time, taking a second look at ordinary objects, places and events - capturing a viewpoint we see but don't always notice, and giving us a second opportunity to pay attention.

Archetypes are things about being human that everyone will recognize. Beck uses a language of shared experience to take his audience to places they understand, whether it's in the ICON Magazine columns that he has written for thirteen years, or the award-winning paintings that have brought him national recognition. "I don't just describe what I see," says Beck. "I try to figure-out why something caught my interest, and then paint what I learn. My images are about an encounter – how it feels to be there." There is an observation about being human at the core of every Robert Beck painting.

Beck's heritage, and his first love, is Bucks County, and he made his name and career in the Lambertville/New Hope art community. His sense of personal engagement is apparent in the images he paints in New York and Coastal Maine as well - narratives about people, events, occupations, and atmospheres. We visit barnyards and city streets and foggy oceans. Inside and out, night and day. Each painting brings you closer to the central theme of his work. Each one comes with a heartbeat, even if it's your own.

Beck's resume lists in-depth museum exhibitions at the James A. Michener Museum, The Museum of the City of Trenton at Ellarslie, and the Maine Maritime Museum. His work has been shown at the Museum of the Shenandoah Valley, The Stephen Friedman Gallery in London, and the Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts. Beck has had 33 solo shows, including at the National Arts Club in New York, and he has participated 50 juried exhibitions. He has received 29 major awards, the Philadelphia Sketch Club Medal, The Phillips Mill Honored Artist award, and is the New Hope Arts 2018 Legacy Artist.

Robert Beck's guest is ceramic artist Katherine Hackl, whose work includes sculpture; combining porcelain, cast bronze, coral, and copper. Like Robert, Katherine has deep links to this area, having lived here most of her life and working out of her Swan Street Studio in Lambertville. With a unique and mature style, a strong influence from the natural world, superb craftsmanship, and an eye for elegant form and composition, Katherine Hackl's work is perfect company in this exhibition.

We hope you can come visit.

General Opening Receptions: Saturday, Sept. 8, 5-8, Sunday, Sept. 9 1-4

Subsequent hours: Weekends 1-4 through October 7.

Art Natters: Members News

PSC member, Sally K Eisenberg will continue to exhibit four of her abstract paintings from her body of work "Transitions" at The Academy House (1420 Locust Street) through October 14th.

Transitions

PSC member Su Knoll Horthy, www.suknollhorthy.com, has been invited by the Delaware Theatre Company, to have a solo exhibition of her "Color Pops" series in their Gallery during the upcoming play "Sanctions." The exhibition and play will run September 12th through 30th, 2018. The Delaware Theatre Company is located in Wilmington, DE. For more information: www.delawaretheatre.org/sanctions.

"A description of Sanctions"

When a university athletic department returns to the big business of college football after its NCAA probation is lifted, staff conflict and a new scandal involving a freshman tutor threaten to blow up the whole program. From the playwright of "White Guy on the Bus" and "The Outgoing Tide" comes this incendiary and timely new drama inspired by true events. The show deals with sexual assault and racism, and is overall very heavy. To help patrons process the show, we are hosting panels and discussions about these topics following performances. I would like our gallery to be more of a safe space rather than filling it with even more heavy material. I'm really attracted to the idea of having abstract art (particularly Color Pops if available) in our gallery for this show because of its ambiguity. If patrons excuse themselves during the performance to process emotions related to the subject material, the art could lend itself to that processing."
