Open to PSC Members and Non-Members

RSVP to Michelle Lockamy at 215-545-9298 or executivedirector@sketchclub.org

Critique Night is held in the Library of the Sketch Club every third Wednesday beginning at 7 PM. Bring work you've finished, work in progress, or just sketches for work you're planning! Photos, digital work, drawings; all mediums are welcome; we can project digital images on a screen for review, so you have the option to show work that may be too big or too heavy to transport to the Club. There is no one individual directing the critique, just your fellow artists and peers. Facilitated/monitored by Rich Harrington, PSC President

Urban Nature
Green Cities
Still Life

23 November 2019 - 10 January 2020

Reception - Friday
06 December 2019
5:00-7:00 PM

https://www.shermanaaronson.com/

Sherman Aronson A Friend of PSC.

This show includes a series of images called “Urban Nature / Green Cities”. The focus is to explore the importance of green spaces within our cities, to heighten our awareness of nature around us in the dense urban contexts where we live. Trees, flowers, gardens, walks and natural settings, whether large or small, offer a sense of well-being as well as direct environmental benefit to life around them. Enhancing our perception and conscious awareness of our urban parks and streetscape plantings can support our subconscious behavior and appreciation of climate change and human responses. And travel sketches are great fun.

As a corollary to the urban context for appreciating green places, the show also delves into some simple forms, colors and shapes in still life settings with new selections from the “Blue Vases” series. Using a collection of glass vases and bottles, set against a window with garden views, challenges our view of ordinary objects, perception of light and transparency, and adds an element of contemplation to the art subject. In addition, there will be a small selection of drawings to illustrate the process from original sketch to final color image.
Opportunities/Notices

William Draper Smith presents Orange Slices, one of a 16-piece study of candy images. “Once I completed my “Flower Series”, I moved onto a series of candy images; the long-past and friendly old-time candy.”

I have also integrated the use of my own hand-made and recycled-papers for the backgrounds for all of the 16 images in the series. Attached: “Orange Slices”

Candy Series - Orange Slices
In Memory: Former PSC Member Fred H. Andrus June 4, 1950 – November 15, 2019

Fred H. Andrus of Philadelphia, PA passed away on November 15, 2019 at the age of 69. He was born June 4, 1950 in Akron, OH to the late Dr. Frederick H. & Ruth E. (Polk) Andrus.

Fred was predeceased by his father, his mother and his brother James Andrus. He is survived by his one true love Sally Bernhardt; sisters Jean Andrus; Betty Andrus; Kathy (Ronnie Lengel) Andrus; and nieces Mallory Lengel and Hunter Lengel.

Fred was a true renaissance man: a lifelong classical pianist and cellist, a talented painter, and a voracious reader. He was kind to everyone he met and will be missed greatly by all who knew him.

Fred moved to Philadelphia in his 20s and found a love for the city and Eastern Pennsylvania. He worked for Independence Blue Cross for over 20 years, where he met the love of his life, Sally. He spent the last 13 years sharing his life with Sally and her loving family in addition to his own.

 Relatives and friends are invited to his visitation on Monday, December 16, 2019 from 10:00 to 11:00 AM at Cavanagh-Patterson Funeral home, 43 E Baltimore Pike, Media, PA 19063. Memorial Service will begin at 11:00 AM.
