Hello Members,

Once again it is time to start planning for the High School Art Show (2019). As usual, we will be asking our loyal generous members for tax deductible contributions for awards for the young artists’ artwork. The same procedure is still in place. Please make your check out to the “Philadelphia Sketch Club”, with a note in the lower left corner, “HS Art Show Award”, and mail it or bring it to the PSC office, Michelle Lockamy, Executive Director. Her hours are Wed. and Fri.: 00-5:00PM. Also, notify the amount of your award (s) to Dorothy Roschen, in person, by Phone (215 848 3257), or email (droschen@me.com). Any amount is gratefully needed and appreciated. We do like each awardee to receive at least $25.00. To achieve this, we combine donors for one award and some donors give multiple awards. Every donor is recognized on a posted complete awards list in the gallery, which is also in the catalogue. (Award amounts are not posted.) THE CUT-OFF DATE FOR DONATING AWARDS IS Thursday, FEBRUARY 7, 2019.

Deborah Klose, Director of Art Education, School District of Philadelphia, will send the call to entry letters to all School District High School Art Teachers (no charter schools). Usually, about 25-30 teachers respond, and they bring and hang 5 labeled pieces each from their classrooms.

To volunteer to help the Art Teachers hang the work on delivery days (Feb. 4,5,6) let Dorothy know or to sign up-go to the “Volunteers” under the Membership tab on the PSC website. Food donations for the reception (Feb. 24) will be asked for closer to that date.

The student work is not for sale
Thank you, Members, for your wonderful support for this show. It would be absolutely impossible without you.

Sincerely,
Dorothy Roschen, Chair, 2019 HS Art Show, (215 848 3257), droschen@me.com, and Committee Deborah Klose, Director of Art Education, School District of Philadelphia

Attention Members of the Sketch Club:

Please take a minute to imagine this:

You have completed a fine piece of artwork, possibly a painting, pastel or watercolor. Seeing an opportunity to enter this artwork in an exhibition at the Sketch Club, you take care of all the necessary information and payment for the application, and await the results. It is accepted! You bring in the beautifully framed work and it is hung in the gallery with many other deserving pieces. The weekend comes when visitors come to the Club but at that point there is no one to answer the door because there is no volunteer to sit in the gallery. So, after all that work, the disappointed visitor turns and leaves, never having never seen your art nor any of the other pieces in the exhibition.

And that is a shame but also a problem that can be solved!

So, please, members of the Philadelphia Sketch Club: and there are more than 200 members currently. At this time, only about five members do gallery sitting during the year. Only five! I am asking, imploring you to volunteer at least once, hopefully twice a year to gallery sit from 1 to 5. The process is easy. Simply go to: Volunteer Here. Find an Exhibition and a date or dates that are convenient for you and click on that space and type in your name in the text box below and click on the "check" sign. To get access to the building and find out the details (answering the door etc.) please send a text to my number 267 690 2233. Oh, and did I forget to mention that if a member volunteers at least 10 times, they get 50% of their membership! Not too bad!

I really need our members to step up and just take a day or two to help solve this problem. If you have any questions about this, just text me and I will return your text immediately. Thank you so much for considering helping!

Sincerely,

Jackie Barnett

Critique Night – February 20th, 2019 from 7:00 – 9:00 PM

Open to PSC Members and Non-Members

RSVP to Michelle Lockamy at 215-545-9298 or executivedirector@sketchclub.org

Critique Night is held in the Library of the Sketch Club every third Wednesday beginning at 7 PM. Bring work you've finished, work in progress, or just sketches for work you're planning! Photos, digital work, drawings, all mediums are welcome; we can project digital images on a screen for review, so you have the option to show work that may be too big or too heavy to transport to the Club. There is no one individual directing the critique, just your fellow artists and peers. Facilitated/monitored by Rich Harrington, PSC President

Thanks to PSC member volunteer Rich Harrington for organizing and monitoring this event

Photo Circle– February 14th, 2019 from 6:30 to 8:30 PM

We will discuss new group activities and possibilities for expansion. The Photo Circle meets every 2nd Thursday at 6:30 PM. You can contact Steve anytime at si22@drexel.edu or 215-300-9192 (cell).

Thanks to PSC member volunteer Steve Iwanczuk for organizing and monitoring this event.

EDUCATOR WINS 1ST PRIZE IN PRESTIGIOUS PHILADELPHIA SKETCH CLUB EXHIBIT WITH WORK OF HOPE IN MOTHER-CHILD BORDER SEPARATION

PHILADELPHIA, PA, Jan. 22, 2019– Marlene D’Orazio Adler was awarded first prize in the Philadelphia Sketch Club’s prestigious Works on Paper exhibit with “Torn Hearts Reunited,” a work showing a mother and young son together after being separated at the U.S.-Mexico border.

Ms. Adler, an art educator, of Glenside, PA, who taught at the Crow Creek Indian Reservation, in South Dakota, early in her career and taught art for 25 years at North Penn High School, received the award during a ceremony on Sunday, Jan 20, at the Philadelphia Sketch Club’s historic center in Philadelphia. She holds a BFA from the Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts and a Masters in Art Education from the University of the Arts.

“This work took me six months to cut,” said Ms. Adler, who printed the work on heavy-weight print-making paper. “I was upset with the detention of Mexican and Central American migrants at the U.S. border, especially when children were being separated from their parents and families. I wanted to create an art work that would express the anguish that these families went through and are still going through. My title, ‘Torn Hearts Reunited’, expresses what I can't imagine the children and their parents experienced. The image conveys families reuniting and being together in a safe space they can finally call home.”

Other winners in the exhibit were: 2nd Place, Michael Jerista, “Madame Butterfly; 3rd Place, Jacqueline Barnett, “Emma;” Honorable Mention, Meg Constable, “10-11-18”; and Honorable Mention, Alice Chung, “Bridge.” The exhibit runs through Jan. 31 at 235 South Camac Street, Philadelphia, PA 19107, www.sketchclub.org

As America’s oldest club for artists, the Philadelphia Sketch Club has offered visual artists the means to assist each other in their art and promoted the appreciation of art in the greater Philadelphia community since 1860. The club’s activities include 20 art exhibitions every year, presentations by leaders in the local art world, critique sessions to give artists constructive comments on their works, and six workshops per week for practice in painting and sketching. Membership now totals about 240 professional artists who value the culture of mutual assistance in the club’s historic home in Philadelphia. This culture is the same one valued by the club’s founders and early members, who include Thomas Eakins and N. C. Wyeth.

From PSC member Fred Andrus - Two newly completed paintings on canvas - Rest Stop and At the Falls.

Meanwhile, a number of landscapes and a couple of figurative pieces are on display at Sentry Park West n Blue Bell (accessible only during normal business hours as it's an office park) for the next couple of months, in public areas of building 14 first floor and building 17 first and fourth floors.

PSC member John Schmiechen commissioned PSC member Rich Harrington to paint their new Chevy Bolt as a Christmas gift for his husband Ted Lewis. In his usual good form, Harrington came up with a “real winner” according to Schmiechen. Ted's response: “One of the best Christmas gifts I have ever received.”

The car is an all-electric 2019 Bolt in a GM color named “Shock.” It has been named “Skittle” by one of their cousins. So, Ted and John bought a vanity plate with that name, “Skittle.”

The Holiday Sale and Exhibit at the Old City Jewish Art Center - a real success.

According to Rabbi Zalman Wircberg, director of the Center “We invited 18 accomplished artists from the area and they responded by filling up our walls with Beautiful art and filling our tables with wonderful Hanukah and Christmas gifts. It was one of our most exciting shows supporting our mission to open our gallery to the community.”

Long time Sketch Club members, Ted Lewis and John Schmiechen were selected to act as Curators and Chairs of the exhibit which ran through the month of December. According to Schmiechen, 12 original works and 34 various prints and reproductions were sold.

Sketch Club members who participated were Ed Bronstein, Patrick Connors, Richard Harrington, Deborah Ann S. Horsting, Lucy Roehm, Lois Schlachter, John Schmiechen, Dominic Wolocko and Pat Wilson-Schmid.

Founded in 2006 the OCJAC builds Jewish Community through the arts. Its gallery at 119 North 3rd Street has become an exhibition space for serious artists and a landmark gallery in the Philadelphia art scene. The Sketch Club partnered with OCJAC early in 2018 with a member exhibit.

HFM Skyspace Winter Lecture series: A talk with James Turrell’s Agent, Hiram Butler Philadelphia, PA - January 22, 2019 - Chestnut Hill Skyspace is pleased to welcome Hiram Butler, James Turrell's long-time friend and agent, for our Winter Lecture series on Wednesday, February 6 from 7:30pm to 9:00pm. He will talk about how Turrell's brilliant ideas are made real--from the epic Roden Crater, to the intimate Chestnut Hill Skyspace. Hiram, a native Texan who helped build Houston's Live Oak Friends Meeting with a Skyspace, introduced Chestnut Hill Quakers to Turrell. He helped guide the process of creation of the CHFM Skyspace in the over the thirteen years it took to build our new meetinghouse. He will have slides and answer questions.

Hiram’s contemporary art gallery in Houston, founded in 1984, has represented many of the art world's greatest artists. He graduated from the University of Texas and Williams College, worked at the Museum of Modern Art in NYC, and has brought sacred spaces by Jennifer Bartlett and Ellsworth Kelly to public life. This is a speaker presentation/fundraiser. Visitors can reserve a spot online via our Ticketleap listing, as we have limited seating capacity. Visitors may donate online when they reserve a ticket (if using a credit card, we must ask for a minimum $10 contribution). Or, give what you wish at the door where we accept cash and checks, but not credit cards. Donations received are tax deductible and go to support the Skyspace operation and maintenance fund. This series does not include a Skyspace viewing.

About the Skyspace: The Chestnut Hill Skyspace, Greet the Light, is a permanent art installation in the Chestnut Hill Friends Meetinghouse. Skyspaces, rooms with an aperture in the ceiling through which the sky appears curiously closer, have been commissioned by contemporary art enthusiasts and museums around the globe. Cove lighting, which James Turrell designed to highlight and complement the natural light, has been programmed by the artist to subtly emphasize how we perceive light and space. The light changes with the seasons and time of day, most dramatically at dawn and dusk, rewarding repeat visitors with different experiences. The Skyspace is open to the public at designated times every week throughout the year, but not during Sunday worship services.

Volunteer

We Need You!
The Philadelphia Sketch Club is managed entirely by volunteers except for the gallery manager, housekeeping, and bookkeeper.

The PSC always needs volunteer members. Volunteering is one of the most important aspects of being a Sketch Club member and it is the one of the best ways to take advantage of the PSC. You’ll be working with colleagues who share the same interests and helping the PSC provide unique services to the visual arts community. Sign up for an activity today.

Here are some of the activities that volunteers perform:

- Chair exhibitions
- Assist in hanging exhibitions
- Covering exhibition drop-offs and pick-ups
- Monitor workshops
- Assist with presentations
- Serve on the Board of Directors
- Serve as Key Circle volunteers
- Publish the Portfolio
- Manage the PSC web site
- Gallery coverage
- Graphics for Portfolio, PSC web site, social media
- Assist in every aspect of managing the club and providing member services
