Rick Viola Memorial

Rik Viola, Sketch Club member and artist, passed on Tuesday February 5, 2019. A memorial celebration of Rik's life will be held Sunday, June 9th, 2019 1:00PM-4:30PM at the Mansion on Main St. 3000 Main St. Voorhees, NJ 08043. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Samaritan Hospice, 5 Eves Dr. Ste 300, Marlton NJ 08053, the Animal Welfare Association, 509 Centennial Blvd. Voorhees NJ 08043 or the NJ Foundation of the Blind, 155 Morris Ave. Denville, NJ 07834.

Rik was creative, known for his wit and a man of many talents. After a stint in the US Navy, he started acting at the Pasadena Play House alongside Dustin Hoffman. He was seen in many print commercials and roles on stage. Music was an integral part of Rik's life, singing as a tenor with the Rittenhouse Opera and leading a group of retired singers called the Melodeers who entertained at nursing homes in the area. Art was, however, his first love, drawing and painting at an early age. He was a self-taught realist painter of landscapes, portraits and wildlife. He was a lifelong lover of animals as proven by his many portraits of canine companions.

One painting (on the Quai at Collioure) was shown at fourteen museums in the United States. He was a staff cartoonist and illustrator for the Philadelphia Bulletin, doing cartoons for the Mr. Fix-It column. He later worked as the Creative Art Director for a Cherry Hill advertising agency, whose clients included the Cherry Hill Lodge and the Garden State Racetrack. He freelanced for Fleers Bubble Gum in Philadelphia, and in the commercial art field he designed packaging and products for Mark Rodack Import Company. Rik's artwork has been exhibited in galleries in the Philadelphia and New Jersey areas.

He will be remembered by his family and friends for his wit, his laugh and his kind spirit. He was a member of the Screen Actors Guild, AFTRA and Actors Equity.

Richard J. Viola of Haddonfield and Voorhees NJ, died on Tuesday February 5, 2019 at Samaritan Hospice of congestive heart failure and amyloidosis. He was 87 years old.

Critique Night – June 12th, 2019 from 7:00 – 9:00 PM

Open to PSC Members and Non-Members

RSVP to Michelle Lockamy at 215-545-9298 or executivedirector@sketchclub.org

Critique Night is held in the Library of the Sketch Club every third Wednesday beginning at 7 PM. Bring work you've finished, work in progress, or just sketches for work you're planning! Photos, digital work, drawings, all mediums are welcome; we can project digital images on a screen for review, so you have the option to show work that may be too big or too heavy to transport to the Club. There is no one individual directing the critique, just your fellow artists and peers. Facilitated/monitored by Rich Harrington, PSC President

Sketch Club member Joann Neufeld searched the city for an exhibition venue, someplace with like-minded creative people who share their paintings, drawings, photos, ideas, and enthusiasm for the arts. We found it in the Philadelphia Sketch Club. My son, Daniel Neufeld, and I look forward to showcasing our work, volunteering in your galleries, and joining your community. His photo was accepted into your next photography show and I will help with the exhibition. He attended Bucks County Community College and has shown his work throughout the region. I am a Tyler graduate who has shown my work as well as taught art in Philadelphia and New Hope-Solebury public schools. I will be teaching a drawing/painting/videography class called 'Capturing Philadelphia' this summer at the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute of Temple University.

2019 Friends' Juried Exhibition

The Delaware Contemporary

May 21 - September 26, 2019 |

Opening Reception: Friday, June 7, 2019

5 - 9 PM during first Friday Art Loop

Juried by Cynthia Hawkins, PhD

Tacit, the unspoken force at the core of this year's Friends Juried Group Exhibition that implies the manner in which each artist interprets the world. The tableaux underlying their personal narratives or visions are told through the artist's handling of the material in varied, covert, and self-evident ways. The common thread weaving through the individual work is their tacit ability to break free from rigid or confined rules. Art is not only about bold color harmony, mark-making, representative imagery, or purely abstract concepts, but often connotes unspoken messages meant to invite dialogue that unlocks the human imagination, thereby freeing its limitations.

This exhibition includes 15 regional artists who work with conventional and avant-garde processes, and examine the subtle ways in which to communicate and translate emotions, identity, ritual, or experience. The interconnection is rendered with repetitive linear marks, shapes, and nuanced color.

Guest juror Cynthia Hawkins remarked, "The works submitted were inclusive of the greatest range of styles and media with a variety of understandings of content and narrative. The collection of art works illustrates clearly the breadth of approaches to art, and that indeed we all have something to say about the world we live in. Congratulations to all."

The 2019 Friends' Juried participating artists are Sherry Brilliant, Bill Buck, Candace diCarlo, Marlowe merson, Linnie Greenberg, Su Knoll Horthy, Irwin Freeman, Jack Knight, Gail Kolflat, Chloe McEldowney, Rafael Montoya, Aleksandar Popovic, Merrill Smith, William Spiker, and Peter Trieber. Cynthia Hawkins received her PhD in American Studies in the Department of Transnational Studies at the University of Buffalo. She is the Gallery Director and Curator for State University of New York, Geneseo's Bertha Lederer Gallery and Lockhart Gallery. She received her MA in Museum Studies from Seton Hall University. With her scholarship, Hawkins maintains an art practice. She is a long-time abstract painter using a variety of media. Hawkins received her BA in painting from Queens College, CUNY, and an MFA in painting from Maryland Institute College of Art. Her artwork has been exhibited throughout the Mid-Atlantic and Mexico, and venues including the Bronx Museum of Art, Rush Art Foundation, NY, Trenton City Museum, NJ, Aljira, a Center for Contemporary Art, NJ, Clark Atlanta University Art Galleries, GA, and the Wilmer Jennings Gallery, NY. Landscape painting in Mount Desert, Maine and Jamestown, Rhode Island

This workshop is for painters of every experience including first time painters. Emphasis is on learning to gain confidence in mixing color and seeing more clearly. Painting is a matter of translating what we see into color, shape, and light and shadow. Through demonstrations and direct guidance, students will produce several paintings and gain valuable experience. We will paint from 9am to 5pm with time out for a lunch break. Working on six consecutive days provides a wonderful opportunity for lessons to be reinforced and fundamentals of painting to be grasped.

Painters of all experience levels are welcome – no previous landscape painting experience is required. A materials list will be provided.

The group will be lodging together in a large beautiful house with views of the water (see link). Breakfast, lunch and dinner are included in this workshop. Dining together creates a unique opportunity to combine the pleasure of socializing with the artistic experience of painting each day. After a day of painting it's wonderful to just relax, have a glass of wine and dine with new friends without having to look for a restaurant.

Dates: August 24th to August 31st, Saturday to Saturday

Location: Mount Desert, Maine.

Volunteer

We !!STILL!! Need You!

The Philadelphia Sketch Club is managed entirely by volunteers except for the gallery manager, housekeeping, and bookkeeper.

The PSC always needs volunteer members. Volunteering is one of the most important aspects of being a Sketch Club member and it is the one of the best ways to take advantage of the PSC. You'll be working with colleagues who share the same interests and helping the PSC provide unique services to the visual arts community. Sign up for an activity today.

Here are some of the activities that volunteers perform:

- Chair exhibitions
- Assist in hanging exhibitions
- Covering exhibition drop-offs and pick-ups
- Monitor workshops
- Assist with presentations
- Serve on the Board of Directors
- Serve as Key Circle volunteers
- Publish the Portfolio
- Manage the PSC web site
- Gallery coverage
- Graphics for Portfolio, PSC web site, social media
- Assist in every aspect of managing the club and providing member services

Contribute

Please consider making your tax-deductible contribution now. These funds will be put to good use providing enhanced services to our members and friends.

Membership dues cover only a small portion of the PSC's operating expenses. Competition for funding for arts organizations like the Sketch Club is increasingly competitive and total funding for the arts is shrinking. Your additional support will keep the PSC an active support for visual artists in the Metropolitan Philadelphia area. The Philadelphia Sketch Club is an IRS designated 501(c) (3) non-profit organization.
